Overview

Richard Hebert Jr promises to guide, negotiate and facilitate your real estate transactions as though his own, representing faithfully your needs, interests, and values with competence, professionalism, proficiency, and great care. Active and retired Military receive special attention, always welcome. Thank you for your service!

Experience

Richard's passion is for all things real estate- a builder at heart. His goal is to help you find what you want and need from your next real estate transaction is a tremendous joy. Richard brings a comprehensive 40-year history of knowledgeable hands-on talent, skill, and expertise as a master craftsman/general building contractor/entrepreneur/real estate investor to his full-service real estate consultancy at Keller Williams Realty- Silicon Valley. Real estate transactions have many moving parts, increasingly complex and nuanced.

Understanding the Silicon Valley real estate market dynamic is part art and part science, requiring constant vigilance and due diligence to stay on top of the market. Richard does just that for you!

Awards

Lambda Sigma Chapter: Delta Mu Delta
University of Phoenix Alumni

Certifications

Richard graduated with honors from University of Phoenix in 2012 with a BS/Business and Accounting.

Personal

Richard is a single father of four, three sons and a daughter, and two young grandchildren, always looking forward to the next round of adventures, wonders and discoveries with the little ones as they grow.

Richard loves working with his hands, from building and remodeling houses to building and tuning hot rods and race cars. These things have faded into the background lately, for the most part.

Richard lives, works and plays in Campbell and enjoys getting away for a day or two in Sonora- here and there. He lives to work and works to live. Life is an adventure. Life is good. Let's have fun with it.
